Dear Marge, Johnny Turner from Savannah Georgia died January 24, 2007, in Macon where he lived. He had undergone many procedures for his heart, then a year ago contracted leukemia. Last week we were at his funeral in Macon, GA, then the caravan took him to Savannah where there was a graveside service. He leaves his wife Gail, 2 grown children and 3 grandchildren.

Thanks for your wonderful continued service to the Layne's Home and her many servicemen!
Sincerely, Clarence and Gena (Linzey) English

Hey, We just received the home news today. Thank you so much. Reading the letters and people's names sure do bring back memories for me. I'm afraid to say that a lot of them I have forgotten. I guess that is from being away for so long. Ken and I were married in 1962. He was 19 and I was 17. Clarence English loaned us his car when we got married so we could go off for a few days. I don't know if he even remembers it. Please let us know when you get the book done. God Bless You, Karen Sampier Whitt

We received The Home News letter from Joel Barnett. He said that you did not have Tom Bennett's address. We have gotten the letters before, but not for quite awhile. We always enjoy hearing from The Home and old friends. God bless you, Tom & Jean Bennett
